

Budderfly 2020 Promise Internship

Budderfly is a very fast-growing energy efficiency management firm. It is unique in using a business model in which it will invest its own money in upgrades to client facilities and then using the savings – often as high as 30% - to pay for the improvements. Clients usually receive the first 10% of the savings and Budderfly uses the next 20%.

Location

2 Trap Falls Road, Shelton Connecticut

Time Period

Approximately June 8, 2020 to August 28, 2020 – subject to final negotiations

Salary

TBD – within the range as specified by Promise

Responsibilities

Work with Sales team to find leads, work with potential clients and prepare presentations

Work with Development team to review daily energy and energy efficiency newsletters to find trends and news that can help improve company strategies and inform product development

Work with finance department to help process customer utility bills and sort for accounts payable department (if needed)

Work with Marketing team to monitor social media and activities of identified competitors