

HealthVenture Internship Program

School's out for the summer, now what? Interested in learning about the exciting world of innovation, entrepreneurship and venture capital?

Each summer HealthVenture opens its doors to students, from high school to graduate school, looking to get a taste of the challenging and fast-paced environment of healthcare innovation, with a behind-the-scenes opportunity to work with future successful start-ups.

Paid, 10-week, part-time and full-time internship

Join our growing global network of alumni

Work across functions: finance, marketing, strategy, planning, operations

Professional and leadership development workshop opportunities

Connect with our mentor network

4 continents, 5 countries: China, India, Malaysia, UK, US

Requirements

- Current student, based in New Haven 3-days of the week
- Passion to learn about innovation/entrepreneurship
- Strong research, analytical and problem solving skills
- Command of technology tools (Microsoft Office, Canva Basecamp, JIRA)
- Able to track multiple tasks and responsibilities and meet deadlines

Rolling Application and Interview Process. Apply Today:

CV/Resume | Cover Letter | Unofficial Transcripts
Submit attachments to apply@healthventure.com

HealthVenture is a global foundry, venture capital and consulting advisory firm. As an innovative center of excellence we are dedicated to scale seed and early stage digital health technology startups. Located in New Haven, CT at HealthHavenHub, we are developing an ecosystem that provides an environment for entrepreneurs to enhance their innovation and to develop and build their product design.