

New Haven Promise Fellow, Education Associate

Yale Center for British Art

[REQUESTION NUMBER]

University Job Title

Intern, New Haven Promise

Position Focus

The Yale Center for British Art is seeking a full-time fellow to join their Education Department. This fellowship is designed to provide a recent graduate with an opportunity to deepen their knowledge of how the Center functions administratively and operationally, while broadening their teaching and project management skills. The fellow will learn how to develop educational programs, identify and sustain school and community partnerships, and strategies for teaching in an art museum. The fellow will be mentored by the Senior Curator of Education, with assistance from the Curator of Education and Academic Outreach,

The Fellowship is open to New Haven Promise Scholars who have recently graduated from college and have worked one or more summers as Promise Interns at Yale. It would begin immediately, with a term of one year.

Essential Duties – GENERIC (from HR)

Required Education and Experience

Bachelor's degree

Required Skill / Ability 1: Prior experience as a New Haven Promise Intern.

Required Skill / Ability 2: Excellent written and oral communication skills. Excellent interpersonal skills.

Required Skill / Ability 3: Demonstrated interest in art, museums, or teaching.

Required Skill / Ability 4: Proven ability to manage tasks efficiently and to meet established deadlines

Required Skill / Ability 5: Demonstrated curiosity and initiative